

When it comes to obesity, support employees with The Weigh Forward

Losing weight and keeping it off is hard because of how my body reacts to weight loss. Making a weight-management plan with my healthcare provider is important to my success— as is having coverage for an anti-obesity medicine because they can help me lose weight and maintain it!

Employers play an important role in providing access to treatment for employees with obesity